POSITION OVERVIEW

The United States District Court for the Northern District of California is recruiting for an Official Court Reporter who is Realtime certified. The position is located in San Francisco, California. Duties include:

- Verbatim reporting of proceedings held before United States district and magistrate judges, and transcribing those proceedings via Eclipse software upon request;
- Producing accurate, simultaneous Realtime translation utilizing computer-aided translation;
- Reading back the court record as required;
- Creating audio recordings (in addition to shorthand notes) of pleas, arraignments and proceedings in connection with the sentencing of criminal defendants;
- Transcribing digital audio records;
- Uploading shorthand notes, audio recordings, transcripts, reports and other documents;
- Working as part of a team of reporters for the judges of the court;
- Adhering to all requirements of the Court Reporter Management Plan for the District and the Guide to Judiciary Policy;
- Performing administrative duties as assigned;
- Requires occasional travel to the courthouses in Oakland, San Jose, and Eureka.

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidate (1) must possess at least four years of prime stenographic computer-aided transcription (CAT) court reporting experience as a court reporter or as a freelance reporter, or a combination thereof; (2) must have passed the Registered Professional Reporter (RPR) Examination administered by the National Court Reporters Association (NCRA) or passed an equivalent qualifying examination such as the Certified Shorthand Reporter (CSR) Examination administered by the Court Reporters Board of California; and (3) must have passed a Certified Realtime Reporter (CRR) Examination administered by NCRA or equivalent exam.

Physical Requirements: Successful candidate must be able to (with or without accommodation): (1) bend, (2) pull, push, and lift up to 20 pounds, (3) reach, (4) walk, (5) sit for extended periods.

BENEFITS

Employees qualify for retirement plans, federal employee's group health insurance, life insurance, dental/vision insurances, and flexible benefits.

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

The successful candidate for this position is subject to a FBI fingerprint check and background investigation (employment will be provisional and contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the required background investigation), will be required to adhere to a code of conduct (which is available upon request) and is subject to mandatory direct deposit of federal wages. The court is not authorized to reimburse travel expenses for interviews or relocations.

Interviewing Non Citizens and Making Offers of Future Employment: Non citizens may be interviewed and considered for employment, but employment offers will only be made to individuals who qualify under one of the exceptions in 8 U.S.C. § 1324b(a)(3)(B). In most cases, this means that an offer of employment cannot be made unless the candidate is a lawful permanent resident who is seeking U.S. citizenship as explained below.

Under 8 U.S.C. §1324b (a)(3)(B), a lawful permanent resident seeking citizenship may not apply for citizenship until he or she has been a permanent resident for at least five years (three years if seeking naturalization as a spouse of a citizen), at which point he or she must apply for citizenship within six months of becoming eligible, and must complete the process within two years of applying (unless there is a delay caused by the processors of the application).
