Advocacy

CCRA employs a team of lobbyists in Sacramento to support CCRA's legislative efforts to protect and preserve the court reporting profession. CCRA monitors all bills that are introduced in the Assembly and Senate. CCRA is the only organization lobbying for all reporters, both officials and freelancers.

A Future for Court Reporting and Your Job Security

CCRA boasts a highly successful team of court reporting professionals who are knowledgeable and skilled in the California legislative arena. CCRA has defeated every single bill ever introduced to replace court reporters with ER. Since 1980 there have been eleven such attempts. CCRA provides extensive lobbying efforts in Sacramento and is the only organization lobbying for all reporters, both officials and freelancers.

CCRA Connect

The only California state publication devoted to both officials and freelancers, this truly invaluable publication keeps you informed on professional trends, technological developments, and legislative and legal issues. Learn what is going on in the reporting community and the latest developments in your profession. CCRA Connect is a quarterly e-newsletter.

New Member Benefit for Freelancers: Find A Reporter!

CCRA understands that freelancers value their independence and the ability to select the work they feel matches their skillset. CCRA has worked diligently to create a resource to assist freelancers with a way to connect with prospective clients and job assignments. We've eliminated the stress a consumer or client feels when searching for a qualified CSR at the 11th hour. Please click here to give it a try!

Annual Convention

Discounted registration fee for the CCRA annual convention. Our conventions, a four-day event held in some of California's most beautiful areas, offer the opportunity to network with your friends and peers, learn the latest in technology as it relates to the Court Reporting profession, earn CEUs, and see the industry's premier vendors in the exhibit hall.

Continuing Education Seminars

Discounted registration fee for exciting, state-of-the-art seminars, held at various locations around the state, for your convenience. These provide professional enhancement and CE accreditation for your NCRA status on a wide array of reporting-related topics, including recent changes in the laws which affect you. Meet court reporting's most influential leaders and make contact with vendors who showcase the latest technology. Networking events provide you with the opportunity to meet new people and have some fun!

CCRA Compendium

CCRA is proud to break new ground by becoming the first court reporters association in the nation to launch an e-Compendium, offering exactly the same high level content as our yearly paperback publication now in digital form. You will no longer have to buy multiple versions as we are consolidating the freelance/CART and official compendiums into one easy-to-use app. Click here for additional information.

Official Court Reporters: Save $35 per Month on YesLaw Software!

YesLaw e-filing software is currently being used in many counties throughout our state and is considered to be the gold standard for an electronic transcript by the appellate courts who have been receiving transcripts electronically. Official Court Reporters: By joining CCRA and utilizing YesLaw at the cost of only $25 a month, you will always be compliant with ALL of the requirements of California Rule of Court 8.144, Form of the Record, and will never have to worry when you upload a transcript whether you are in compliance with the Code. YesLaw software is fully compatible with all CAT software, so there is no need to purchase new. So why deliver to your clients the minimum standard when you have the ability to deliver the GOLD!!

Mentoring Program

This program is designed to match up court reporting students with court reporter mentors. The purpose is to encourage, support, guide and nurture the next generation of court reporters through school and during the beginning stages of their new careers. There is no better person for this job than a working reporter who has been through it. Click here for more information.

Student Scholarship

The California Court Reporters Association awards a $1,000 scholarship to a student in the 160 to the qualifiers speed level. The recipient will be selected by the Support Our Students (SOS) Committee and approved by the Board of Directors. Stay tuned for the 2019 essay question!
